

Take Away Homework!

‘Dragons Fact or Fiction?’

Choose your homework from the menu below:

The Peri-ometer suggests the difficulty or challenge the homework may offer.

Every term you should attempt at least one ‘EXTRA HOT’ task!

Starter

Main Course

Dessert

Make a presentation about whether dragons are fact or fiction.	Make a Circle map about your knowledge of dragons.	Create a 3-D Dragon and describe it to the best you can. You can also include a bubble map.
Create a leaflet on how to train your dragon. Make sure you include diagrams and instructions.	Create a board game that have dragons and knights. Don't forget to include instructions.	Make a PowerPoint presentation about a famous mountain in the UK.
Write a short story about a dragon. Don't forget to use your green creativity cap.	Write a song or poem about dragons.	Create a comic strip for the legend of St. George and the dragon.
Can you design a uniform for a child to wear when they are riding a dragon? Make sure you include labels.	Write a character description of a fearsome dragon. Make sure you use your sense.	Draw your own dragon and write your own words to describe it around it.